

Paula Silver

Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications/Corporate Citizenship
& DTE Foundation
DTE Energy

Paula Silver is senior vice president of Corporate Communications/Corporate Citizenship & DTE Foundation.

Silver leads the strategic planning and oversight of Corporate Communications, Corporate Citizenship and the DTE Energy Foundation. Her team's responsibilities within Corporate Communications include advertising, sponsorships, brand management, customer communications, media relations, internal communications, marketing communications and operational communications for the gas, electric, nuclear and non-utility businesses. Her team's responsibilities within Corporate Citizenship include community transformation efforts, the annual United Way campaign, and philanthropic support through the DTE Energy Foundation, which provided more than $15 million in grant support in 2022 alone.

Silver joined DTE Energy in 2015 from Federal-Mogul Corp., where she was vice president of Communications and Investor Relations. Previously, she served as vice president of Communications and Public Relations for Quicken Loans/Rock Ventures, now called Rocket Mortgage.

Silver earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Wayne State University in Detroit. She has several executive certificates from the University of Michigan.

Silver is a board member of The Parade Company, Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) and the American Heart Association. She also sits on Wayne State University's Board of Volunteers for the College of Fine, Performing and Communications Arts and is a member of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) and the International Association of Business Communicators (IABC).
